Milford FFA, Mowery Auction, IMH team up for farm safety

National Farm Safety and Health Week is September 15-21. "Working Together for Safety in Agriculture" is the theme this year.

Iroquois Memorial Hospital is coordinating a Health and Wellness event on Wednesday, Sept. 18 at Mowery's Auction in Milford. IMH is partnering with the Milford FFA chapter, Milford Fire Department and area businesses to provide safety information, demonstrations, and a variety of health screens.

Kristin Decker, a Milford High School graduate, works at WGN Radio in Chicago as reporter/assistant producer for This Week in AgriBusiness - RFD-TV.

She will attend with a camera crew and is excited to participate in an event showcasing her home town.

Mowery Auctions draw 500 to 1000 people each month from all over the United States.

The event is one of many of IMH's continued efforts to prevent illnesses, injuries and deaths among farmers, agricultural workers and their families.
