Police News

A blue Next mountain bike was found at 9 a.m. Thursday in the alley behind 426 E. Honeywell. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

A set of car keys was found in the men's bathroom at McFerren Park. The owner may identify and claim the keys at the police station.

Matthew J. Avalos, 31, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a disturbance at 3:26 p.m. Thursday in the 500 block of West Penn. Police arrived at the scene to see Avalos allegedly attaching the woman's car, damaging it.

He was charged with criminal damage to property over $500 and was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

A blue Next mountain bike was found at 8 a.m. Friday near Thompson north of the tennis courts. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Library activities include archaeology display, family

Traveling archeology exhibit on display

The Vermilion County Conservation District will sponsor a traveling archeology exhibit at Hoopeston Public Library during the week of August 11-16.

The display will present photos and factual information about the study of human history and prehistory in Illinois through the excavation of sites and the analysis of artifacts and other physical remains.

The display will be available for viewing in the library's lower level meeting room during regular library hours: 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday; 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday.

A free educational program on archeology for grade school children and adults will be presented at 2 p.m. Friday, Aug. 15.

Back-to-school movie

Hoopeston area families are invited to enjoy a fun back-to-school movie event at 2 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 14

One person was treated after a three-vehicle accident at 1:54 p.m. Friday at Penn and Bank.

Pamela L. Highfill, of Hoopeston, complained of neck and head pain after the accident and was taken to Hoopeston Hospital by EMS.

Police said Highfill, in a 2008 Ford, struck the rear of a 2011 Ford driven by Jerry L. Smith, also of Hoopeston. Smith then struck a 2001 Isuzu Carryall driven by Deborah L. Hamilton, also of Hoopeston.

No tickets were reported.

at Hoopeston Public Library.

Take a trip back in time to when star Monsters, Inc. employees Mike (voice of Billy Crystal) and Sulley (voice of John Goodman) were promising young students at Monsters University in this frightfully fun prequel. Long before they were lurking in closets for a living, Mike and Sulley were just two Scaring majors at MU, dreaming of the day they would make children shriek in terror. When their heated competition to be the most fearsome in their class gets out of hand, however, Mike and Sulley find themselves ejected from the prestigious Scare Program, and they are forced to seek the aid of their oddball friends in order to get their education back on track. This 2013 Disney/Pixar release is rated G for the entire family.

Free refreshments will be served. Children ages 8 and under should be accompanied by an adult.

Hoopeston Public Library is located at 110 N. Fourth St., Hoopeston. For more information, call the library at 217-283-6711.
