Auction replaces calendar sales to fund HA Music Boosters

Hoopeston Area Music Boosters will have a new fundraiser this year in place of the years-long calendar sales.

The group will hold a benefit auction beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday at the McFerren Park Civic Center. The afternoon will also include performances from Hoopeston Area bands and choirs, kids' activities, including a cake walk and photo booth, and bake sale and concessions.

Area businesses have generously donated many items for the auction, which will include a Music

Shope guitar, voice lessons, Country Theatre Workshop season passes, gift baskets, handmade items, Cee Lee Photography package, hair salon certificates, Lee Cox engraved rock and Terminex services.

Also, gift cards, mystery boxes, seed, Lorraine Theatre, Pink Poodle, Thirty One, Scentsy, Skaters Paradise Rebel roller skates, Bonpas Creek Photography, La Casa del Sol, dog training, massage therapy, piano lessons, guitar lessons, baked goods, original art from Carl Ankenbrand and much more.

U of I Extension to offer 2015 Small Farm Webinar series

CHAMPAIGN—The Small Farm Webinar Series is a weekly educational series for the small farm community and provides practical knowledge on emerging topics which advance local food production in Illinois. This series of online events is aimed at providing small farm producers with a look at how leading practices in production, management, and marketing enable operations to improve profitability and sustainability.

Webinars air live each Thursday at 1–2:30 p.m. and include a question and answer session. In addition to viewing events on a personal computer, Extension educator, Steve Ayers, said sessions will be presented via computer at the University of Illinois Extension office in Champaign at 801 N Country Fair Drive. Anyone interested in attending the in-person viewings in Champaign

Briefly

Veterans Day ceremony

Hoopeston's Veterans Day ceremony will begin at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday at Hoopeston Area Middle School gym. Fred Tabor is the keynote speaker, with music by Hoopeston Area band and choir students.

Following the ceremony, everyone is invited for free chili and potato soup at Hoopeston American Legion, 502 E. Penn.
