HPL to offer 'Make and Take' craft fun for grown ups

Welcome spring with a terrarium garden!
 Hoopeston Public Library invites local residents to a "Make-and-Take" Craft Day at 10 a.m., Wednesday, April 15, led by Elaine Tyler of The Flower Shop.
 Cost for the event is $20 per person. Participants will receive all the materials necessary to create their own indoor, low-maintenance container garden.

 Advance registration is required by April 11. Payment will be received on the day of the event.
 To sign up, stop by the library's main desk or call 217-283-6711 for more information.
 This event is for adults only. No child care will be provided.

They're creepy and they're kooky
 Milford High School drama students take to the stage Saturday at the WHPO Expo to perform numbers from their upcoming performance of "The Addams Family - The Musical." Performances will be at 7 p.m. March 27, 28 and 2 p.m. March 29.

CRIS Healthy Aging Center to offer six-week course for 'GrandFamilies' starting March 24

The CRIS Healthy-Aging Center in cooperation with the University of Illinois Extension will present a six-week class for "GrandFamilies." The class is a special educational opportunity for grandparents who are raising their grandchildren.

The class will feature how to prepare healthier food that both grandparents and the grandchildren will enjoy. Eating healthy, budgeting techniques and ideas to stay active will also be taught. The class also lets participants have fun and meet and share experiences with other GrandFamilies.

GrandFamilies is a six week class starting on Tuesday March 24, and will be held every Tuesday until April 27. Each class runs from 10:30 to noon. The class will be held at the CRIS Healthy-Aging Center. This program is free to participants, but preregistration is required.

The class will be taught by Kristen Watson, a nutrition educator with the University of Illinois Extension.

To register, contact Lisa Rogers at CRIS. Phone 217-443-2999.

Women's clinic sponsors first student pro-life essay contest

Women's Care Clinic of Danville has announced its first Pro-Life Essay Contest for high school students. County students in grades 9-12 are invited to submit written essays or visual works of art addressing the topic, "Valuing Life from Conception to Natural Death." Essays may be no more than 750 words; visual works should be unframed and mounted on 22 x 28 poster board or similar backing. All entries become the property of Women's Care Clinic for contest and promotional purposes.

Entries are due Friday, March 20. Prizes will be awarded to the top three entries in each category; winners will be announced at the clinic's Banquet for Life on April 23. For more information, complete rules and a printable contest poster, go to www.danvillewcc.org/essay-contest.
