

On this Memorial Day, as we honor veterans who made the ultimate sacrifice and all veterans who served their country honorably, the American Legion would like to recognize the veterans who serve in the American legion Honor Guard and funeral details. These men and women brave nature's elements to ensure that our nation's colors are presented with proper etiquette and tradition, while also providing our passing veterans the ceremony they deserve.

Look at the Positive

By BERTHA PARSONS

What's happening in our city? Change is all around us, how can we stay positive? As our new alderman join the city council I wonder, do we have leaders or followers? Will our alderman new and returning be able to stand on their beliefs and do what is best for our city?

I've only attended a few city council meetings but like many of you, I read, watch and listen to what and how each member is working to improve our city. Yes, all of us have to work together if we want our city to improve.

A few weeks ago I decided to look around our downtown. Do you realize there are thirty-two businesses on the three downtown blocks and two side streets? Yes, retail and service businesses.

Many owners are dressing up their windows, doing some painting and fixing up their business.

The city put flowers out to help dress up downtown, too.

Like our city council, it is not easy to spend income on remodeling or fixing up when that income is less than a year ago and when things in our country are so uncertain. Both the city and the businesses have learned they must work within their means and figure out a workable budget for the future.

I do recognize the efforts businesses and the city are making to improve the downtown area. I certainly see the positive.

We cannot forget all the other business in our great little town, at least fifty or more retail and service business, many making improvements. Positively awesome!

Do you realize there are small towns with only three to six businesses! I'm thinking we are pretty darn lucky to have all these businesses right here in Hoopeston. Plus a council who has our best interest in mind and is aware we are watching them. Look at the positive.

"Deep optimism is aware of problems but recognizes the solutions; knows about difficulties but believes they can be overcome; sees the negative but accentuates the positive. Is exposed to the worst but expects the best; has reason to complain but prefers to smile." William Arthur Ward

You and me - let's look at the positive.
