In Acts 5, however, when government tells Christians essentially "shut up," Peter responds "we ought to obey God rather than men." In other words, God is a higher authority than government, especially concerning those issues where government becomes anti-God.

The Founding Fathers understood correctly government's role in society and went a step further to protect us from tyranny, establishing a government "by the people and for the people". These civil liberties, as they are called, are further established in our Constitution by the first amendment, balance of powers among three branches, and powers not listed "reserved for the states." Thus states have been in charge of marriage licensees, property rights, etc.

For five US Supreme Court members to disallow the states their constitutional rights ignore first amendment rights of Christians and other religious groups, and decree as kings the law of the land shows more than radical unbelief.

That recent decision to promote homosexual activity shows lack of concern for medical science/behavioral health, and even scarier, a growing willingness to be bullied by a growing number of bitter people who want to punish those who disagree with them.

My goal in writing is not to persuade or impress, but to be a voice crying in the wilderness, Repent or face the only Supreme Court Ruler for all eternity, Jesus Christ alone. Let's be clear, God loves all people, but the one true God of the Bible (as proven by predictive prophecy), is against homosexual behavior in both Testaments.

Isn't it ironic that Moses and/or the Ten Commandments are prominently carved in three places in or on the Supreme Court building? "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools" (Romans 1).
