Drama club to present Meet the Creeps Friday, Saturday

Hoopeston Area High School's Drama Club will present its fall play, "Meet the Creeps," written by Tim Kelly. This production will be presented Friday, Nov. 6 and Saturday, Nov. 7 at 7 pm in the high school Auditorium.

If you love The Addams Family, you'll love the Creeps! They're a loony, lovable household in a dilapidated mansion on Pilgrim Road. There's Sinbad (Heather Simpson), head of the bunch, his beloved wife, Tarantula (Maya Webber), and Sally (Karsen Root), their teenage niece.

Lullaby Jones (Adrienne Houmes) is their gorgeous maid, and their butler (Ina Manning) resembles a billy goat!

Unfortunately for the Creeps, Flora Limetree (Ashley Morgan), a local society dragon, hates them. Each year, Flora enters Pilgrim Road in the All-American Street Contest, and every year the lane loses. She blames the Creeps. Scheming with her nephew (Ricardo Carreno-Diaz), the Creeps find themselves outsiders.

To complicate matters, Prince Un Ravel (Will Franke) arrives from Egypt as a house guest. A weird boarder (Cameron Brotherton) falls in love with Sinbad's grandmother (Katie Weston) who is raising crocodiles in the dungeon! Could you ask for more?

Well, there's a talking clock (Nick Brown), a ghostly portrait (Mattie Drayer), an ancient telephone operator (Maddie Wotus) and Matt (Jaren West) and Scooter (Elizabeth Samet), neighbor kids who turns the plot inside out and back again.

Others in this kooky show include: Regan Shore, Maya Cornelius, Hanna Zayas, Juliana Layden, Katie Lister, Destiny Nedohin, Elle Mobley, Madison Watson, Sarah Houmes, Shania Goble, Haley Lane, and Anna Schamburg.

Tickets are $3 for adults, $2 for students, senior citizens and children 5 and under are free.

Adults, let your inner child out at library coloring, coffee

Kids have known it for years: Coloring is relaxing, sociable and just plain fun! Now adults are also discovering that coloring – with crayons, colored pencils or markers – is a great way to relieve stress and an easy way to create art.

Hoopeston Public Library is offering local residents an opportunity to come together for a relaxing morning of coloring, coffee and conversation at a first-ever "Coffee & Coloring" event at 10 a.m., Monday, Nov. 9.

No special skills or supplies are needed. The library will provide assorted pictures to color, as well as crayons, colored pencils and markers. Local residents who may already be hooked on the coloring craze are welcome to bring their own tools. Coffee and cookies will

From the Blotter

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 10:47 a.m. Thursday at CVS parking lot, 805 S. Dixie Hwy.

Police said John W. Gerth, of Wellington, backed a 2003 Buick Century into a 2000 Toyota Camry, driven by Ana Pop, of Hoopeston. Pop's car was towed from the scene after a rear tire snapped and was not drivable.

A 15-year-old boy was taken to the Juvenile Detention Center in Danville after he was arrested at 9:40 p.m. Thursday.

The boy was charged with domestic battery on a complaint from a 34-year-old Hoopeston woman.

Fire Calls

Hoopeston Fire Department was called at 7:45 p.m. Thursday for a report of an activated carbon monoxide detector in the 300 block of North Ninth Ave. The detector was found to be faulty.

Firemen were called at 5:45 p.m. Saturday to the 700 block of West Penn for an electrical wire on fire. The fire was extinguished and the breaker box turned off.

Tisha A. Lawson, 34, of Hoopeston, was arrested in connection with one crime as she walked into the Vermillion County Courthouse to appear for another case.

Lawson was charged with burglary to garage in connection with a report made Wednesday, when a 45-year-old Hoopeston man reported his John Deere riding mower stolen from the 400 block of Wyman.

Paula Jones, 50, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 9:55 p.m. Friday for a verbal disturbance at Downtown Motel, 200 E. Main.

She was charged with possession of a controlled substance (methamphetamine), possession of cannabis and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Jones was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Angel Bane, 35, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 2:23 a.m. Saturday at Downtown Motel, 200 E. Main.

Police said while on an unrelated call, officers noticed an open door to another apartment that no one should have been in. Bane was allegedly found inside and charged with trespassing. She was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Angela D. Miller, 31, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 5:48 p.m. Saturday in CVS parking lot, 805 S. Dixie Hwy. A 32-year-old Danville woman alleged Miller battered her, then fled the scene.

She was found with assistance from Iroquois County deputies, charged with battery and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Letters to the Editor

Provider slighted in retirement party

Dennis Price has been a family practice provider serving patients in the Rossville area for 30+ years and retired on Friday, Oct. 30. He has been employed by Carle for the last couple of years.

Carle hosted a retirement open house on Tuesday, Oct. 20. The food was awful and there were very few in attendance. The reason why most of his patients did not get to wish him well was that the invitations were sent out after the event. Most of his patients didn't even know about it until it was over!

Thank you Carle for sending out a very popular provider in a poor excuse of an open house. Talk about the "Carle Experience!"
