Prairieland Council seeks groups to oversee Scouting groups

Prairielands Council is searching for community groups to serve as chartering organizations for Boy Scout Troops, Cub Scout Packs and Venturing units. Prairielands Council serves nine counties in east-central Illinois and western Indiana.

Youth in the area are eager to participate in Scouting but in order to expand the program, Prairielands Council needs community groups called chartering organizations to help expand the program. Chartering Organizations are especially needed in many of the council's smaller communities and rural areas.

There are a wide variety of organizations who currently serve as a chartering organizations, including: churches, schools, school groups, Service Clubs, American Legion Posts, VFWs, plus other civic, faith and community based groups.

A chartering organization may select to sponsor one or all of Scouting's ranks (Cub Scout Pack, Boy Scout Troop, Explorer Posts and Venturing Crew. Venturing is open to boys and girls age 14-20).

The chartering organization provides the meeting facility, helps select the leadership and provides a person who is the liaison between Prairielands Council and the chartering organization.

Becoming a chartering organization is the perfect way to help today's kids as Scouting is the ultimate continuing education program. The program teaches values, builds character and leadership skills, exposes kids to science, technology, engineering, math and first aid, as well as the importance of being a good citizen, all while having fun.

Prairielands Council serves youth in Illinois counties of Champaign, Douglas, Edgar, Ford, Iroquois, Piatt and Vermilion plus Fountain County and part of Vermilion County in Indiana.

For information on Scouting and becoming a Prairielands Council chartering organization, contact Steve Adams, Prairielands Council's Scout Executive/CEO, steve.adams@scouting.org, 1-800-464-7291.
