Egg My House fundraiser to benefit Blessings in Backpack

It's unusual for someone to want his house egged but organizers of the Blessings in a Backpack program have a sweet take on the age-old ritual.

With the Egg My House fundraiser, residents may order candy-filled eggs for delivery the night of April

From the Blotter

Police are investigating a home burglary reported at 3:02 a.m. Wednesday in the 300 block of South Fourth St. A 22-year-old Hoopeston woman reported that someone broke into her home and took undisclosed items.

 15 and be ready for Easter morning fun!
 Forty eggs, filled and placed in your yard, are available for purchase at $25. Delivery is available for Hoopeston Area School District residences and orders must be placed by April 12.

All proceeds benefit Hoopeston's Blessings in a Backpack program, which helps fight childhood hunger every weekend right here in our community.

Information is available at www.bdhweb.net/easter or Hoopeston United Methodist Church, 283- 6738.
