Anderson Motorsports of Hoopeston, Green Galvanized Stairs of East Lynn team up for 2017 tractor pulling season

Photo contributed

Ryan Anderson of Anderson Motorsports of Hoopeston drives his tractor, Check 'N Out at a tractor pulling event. Anderson Motorsports is being sponsored by Green Galvanized Stairs of East Lynn.

Anderson Motorsports of Hoopeston is working on final preparations as the tractor pulling season kicks off on April 28 with their tractor Check N' Out.

With a busy season ahead of them, Anderson Motorsports has added a new sponsor to their team this year. Driver Ryan Anderson's foundation in farming made it an easy decision to combine his passion with agriculture and team up with local business, Greene Galvanized Stairs in East Lynn

Growing up on a family farm near East Lynn inspired Anderson's interest in tractor pulling. In 2005, he purchased his first tractor, an International 1066. Pulling has become much more than a hobby.

As Anderson looked for ways to combine tractor pulling with his farming roots and his dedication to the community, he approached Rex Greene of Greene Galvanized Stairs with the sponsorship idea. The Greene and Anderson families have worked together for generations.
