Methodist church to host cookie walk for Feed My Lambs

If you'd like to have fresh-baked cookies for the holidays but don't have the time - or inclination - to do the baking, Hoopeston First United Methodist Church can help.

A cookie walk will be held from 2-4 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 10, at the church, 403 E. Main St. Holiday cookies will be available by the pound, with a suggested donation of $5 per pound.

The cookie walk is a fundraiser to benefit Feed My Lambs backpack program, which provides weekend food to 70 students at John Greer Grade Center.

Feed My Lambs also hold a summer lunch program for youngsters based at First United Methodist Church.

Get ready for your holiday gatherings and leave the baking to us and help a worthy cause!

Lighting up the night
Members of the Hoopeston Area High School marching band, with lights on their instruments and themselves, play Christmas music during Saturday's Rossville Parade of Lights. The parade featured several lighted displays, fire trucks, Miss Hoopeston, Autumn Layden, and Santa Claus.

Bare bones decorating

Robinson Chiropractic of Hoopeston uses skeletons (along with lights and ribbon) to decorate its Christmas tree for Magical Express on November 25. Robinson's was just one of many trees decorated by local businesses for the event.

From the Blotter

Stephen Mach, 65, of Rossville, was ticketed after an accident at 8:37 a.m. Friday at Third St. and Penn.

Police said Mach, in a 1995 Buick LeSabre, was southbound when he allegedly failed to yield and hit a 2015 Chrysler Town & Country driven by Jessica D. Chase, 40, of Hoopeston. He was cited for failure to yield at an intersection and released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County traffic court.

Hoopeston Fire Department was called for a smoking engine. Both vehicles had extensive damage and were towed from the scene.

Joseph Nicholas, 40, of Westville, was arrested after a 37-year-old Hoopeston woman reported a domestic situation at 8:15 p.m. Friday in the 500 block of North Seventh Ave. When officers arrived in the area, Nicholas allegedly led them on a chase through Hoopeston and into Indiana.

After a single-vehicle accident in a field, Nicholas was arrested on preliminary charges of aggravated discharge of a firearm, aggravated assault, aggravated fleeing and eluding and driving while license revoked.

He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Robert L. Deaton, 44, of Hoopeston was arrested after police were called at 7:35 a.m. Saturday to the 400 block of East Honeywell for a disturbance. He was charged with criminal trespass to state supported property after being previously banned from the property.

He was released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County Circuit Court.

Chasity Hough, 41, of Fairmount, was arrested after police were called at 1:52 p.m. Saturday to McDonalds, 824 S. Dixie Hwy., for a report of a woman "acting strange." After performing a field sobriety test, she was cited for driving under the influence and was released on bond with a date in Vermilion County traffic court.

Two Hoopeston women were arrested after police were called at 10:32 p.m. Saturday to the 700 block of South First Ave.

Bridgett Strawser, 22, and Misty Watson, 36, were each charged with battery and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.
