DACC Ag Club to sponsor 30th Farm Toy Show January 28

The Danville Area Community College Ag Club will sponsor their 30th Annual Farm Toy Show in the Mary Miller Gym on Sunday, Jan. 28 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The show will consist of farm toys in a variety of sizes of reproduction. Scale models as small as 1/64th the actual size will be shown. The general public will be given the opportunity to buy, sell, or trade toys with area collectors and dealers. There will be door prize drawings approximately every half-hour and at 1 p.m. a kiddie tractor pull for kids ages 3 to 10 will be conducted. A concession stand will be available. Admission is $2 for adults and free for those 11 and under. Proceeds will go to the Ag Club Activity fund and the annual Ag Day fund. Last year, the Ag Club supplied the meal for over eighteen hundred people for 50¢, the price farmers receive for the raw inputs of the meal, at the annual Ag Day.

For more information or to plan an exhibit, contact Craig Potter at (217) 443-8816 or e-mail potter@dacc.edu.

Fifth grade boys get second win, sixth graders just miss win

Thursday night both the fifth and sixth grade boys basketball teams played great games on their final away game of the season.

Fifth grade boys earned their second win of the season, defeating Salt Fork, 24-20. The boys played tough defense all game long, not allowing Salt Fork to get any open shots and caused a lot of steals, as well. Trenton Montez had 5 steals and Gavin Walder had 6 to lead the Cornjerkers.

Walder lead the team with 11 points, Trenton Montez scored 7 points, Angel scored 4 points and Kenyon Montez scored 2 points.

The 6th grade team played also played a solid game with good fundamentals all around, but fell in a tight game, 27-26. Kaleb Hollen, Ayden Field, and Ethan Steiner did a great job rebounding throughout the game. The guards did an outstanding job moving the ball around Salt Fork's zone defense. The entire team showed excellent rebounding effort and hustle.

Mason Rush led the Cornjerkers with a season high 11 points, Miles Robinson and Evan Lile each scored 4 points, Keegan Field scored 3 points, and Hollen and Ayden Field each added 2 points as well.

Weather

Rain, fog today. High 58. Tonight, wintry mix. Low 24. Tomorrow, mostly cloudy, chance of snow late. High 29, low 16.
