Girls now welcome as Cub Scouts in Prairieland Council

An exciting era is beginning at Prairielands Council Scouting as girls may now join Cub Scouts.

Boys and girls entering kindergarten through fifth grade can now enjoy the fun and learning opportunities Scouting offers.

Prairielands Council Cub Scout Packs, that have girls will have both male and female leadership. Girls and boys will have separate dens with girls' dens having female leadership.

Cub Scouts is about having fun while learning new things like first aide, team work, leadership skills and appreciating the outdoors. Each level of Cub Scouts is age specific and designed to provide experiences to help the child grow both mentally and physically.

Actually, girls are not new to the Scouting program. Girls, age 14 through 20, have long been active in Scouting through the Venturing and Exploring programs.

Both of these programs are designed, through increased leadership opportunities, to provide positive experiences to help youth become responsible adults.
