HAHS teacher on paid leave, will resign at end of semester

A Hoopeston Area High School teacher is on paid administrative leave pending his resignation at the end of the semester.

The unnamed teacher was placed on paid leave November 21. According to a separation agreement between the teacher and the district, he will be paid a lump sum of $27,141.89 - minus deductions - between 30 and 60 days after his resignation on December 31.

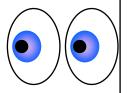

The reason for the teacher's resignation was not released by the district, which, in the separation document, agrees to provide him with "a neutral letter of

Foodmobile coming to city

Eastern Illinois Foodbank's Foodmobile will be at McFerren Park from 10 -11:30 a.m. Saturday and volunteers are needed. Anyone wishing to help is asked to be at the civic center at 8:30 a.m.

The giveaway is open to all low-income Vermilion County residents. Foodmobile staff will not ask for personal information but those receiving food must self-attest to meeting income guidelines, which are:

reference."

The separation agreement also includes a nondisparagement clause in which both sides agree to do nothing that might harm the other or lead to unwanted or unfavorable publicity to the district.

The clause does give the district permission to comply with the state's Open Meetings Act and Freedom of Information Act and to "cooperate with any and all law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction over the district and/or its matters."

Hoopeston Area Education Association officials also signed off on the agreement.

The teacher was hired by Hoopeston Area in June 2012.
