Local youth to wine and dine mom in Valentine contest

"We won! We won! We won!"

That was the reaction of Scot Danner, winner of the Just the Facts Valentine's Day dinner drawing.

Danner's name was chosen Friday night from approximately 500 entries.

The young winner, his mother, Linda, and brother, Sean, will be driven by Atchison Limousine Service, Rossville, from their home to the private dining area of Parkview Lanes where a prime rib dinner awaits, complete with flowers and candy.

Danner said he reads Just the Facts at L&M.

Police News

No tickets or injuries were reported in a two-vehicle accident at 3:25 p.m. Thursday. Cars driven by Leon D. Deck, 215 S. Dixon, Rankin, and Wanda S. Storm, 706 S. Fourth St., Hoopeston, collided at 615 E. Orange.

No tickets or injuries were reported in a two-vehicle accident at 2:50 p.m. Friday. Vehicles driven by Steven G. Hanson, 817 E. Seminary and Shannon R. Ramos, 858 E. Seminary, collided at the 800 block of Seminary and East Honeywell.

Police are investigating a complaint made at 6:59 p.m. Friday from Tammy Thorn, 420 E. McCracken, that someone drove through her yard and damaged a fence.

Police are also investigating a report from John Garrison, 618 S. Fourth St., made at 10:21 a.m. Saturday, that someone took two trim rings from his car early Saturday morning.

Teamsters strike Pillsbury, Grain Millers may follow

Members of Local 26 of the Teamsters Union were picketing from pick up trucks last night after rejected an offer from management at Pillsbury.

Union members would not disclose the vote, but did say they began their strike at 1 p.m., shortly after the 10:30 a.m. vote was taken.

Meanwhile, members of Grain Millers Local 399 voted 48-2 Saturday to reject a company offer and may join the strike if negotiations set for next week are unsuccessful.

Teamsters picketing Sunday used homemade signs affixed to vehicles. "The fancy signs will be here at 6 a.m. (Monday)," said a union member.

Company officials could not be reached for comment.
