Health fair slated at local community center

Three Hoopeston organizations are combining efforts to offer health screenings to local residents.

A Community Health/Service Fair, sponsored by Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital, the Hoopeston Ambulance Service and the Eastern Illinois Multi Purpose Center, will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tuesday, May 17 at the EIMPC, 206 S. First Ave.

Center director Dorothy Metz said the group effort is a more efficient use of time and resources. "We all used to have separate ones," she said. "We found our attendance wasn't what it should have been for the effort we put into it, so we combined our efforts."

Several health-related services will be offered, including blood sugar screening, blood pressure, dental information, glaucoma screening and lung function testing.

Eighteen agencies are participating, including the Vermilion County Health Department, Well Baby Clinic, Hoopeston Multi Agency, CRIS, Vermilion Area Community Center, Dr. William Andrews, Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital and United Samaritans Medical Center. Also, Carle Home Care, YWCA Women's Shelter, Hoopeston Ambulance Service, Miracle Ear, Weber Drugs, EIMPC, AARP, Gulick's Pharmacy, Grant and Ross townships and Food Cupboard, Planned Parenthood and the Danville and Watseka Eye Clinic and Cataract Center.

The fair is free and open to the public.
