Area girl wins scholarship from Hoopeston industry

A Milford girl is the recipient of a scholarship from a local industry.

Stephanie Dawson on Wednesday received a four-year scholarship from American National Can.

Dawson, a 1994 graduate of Milford High School, plans to major in pediatric nursing at Millikin University.

Dawson is the daughter of Les Dawson of Hoopeston and Deb Dawson of Milford.

The scholarship is awarded annually to the child of an American National Can employee.

Dawson's father has been employed at the Hoopeston plant for 20 years.

Dawson is one of 27 students nationwide to receive the scholarship, selected from hundreds of applicants.

She will become one of more than 100 students currently receiving support through the company's scholarship program.
