Casey's General Store scheduled to open next month

The outer shell has been completed, sod has been put down and the signs are going up.

Casey's General Store is close to opening its Hoopeston store.

The convenience store, located at Route 9 and Market St., is scheduled to open sometime in August, said Bill Barrett, real estate developer for Casey's in Illinois and Indiana.

Barrett said he was in Hoopeston Tuesday, looking at the work that has been done so far. "It looks like it's coming along pretty good," he said.

Twelve to 14 local people will be hired for the store, Barrett said. Those interested in applying may do so at the Casey's stores in Milford or Rankin, he said.

As the opening date nears, supervisors will accept applications at the Hoopeston store, as well.

Barrett said the company is dedicated to small towns and their residents. Most of the chain's stores are in towns with populations of 5,000 or less. "Our image is kind of the Mom and Pop corner grocery store," he said.

Casey's will offer doughnuts and other morning food for breakfast, and sandwiches and pizza for lunch and dinner.

The store will also sell gasoline and convenience items.

Many Casey's also sell beer and wine, but Hoopeston's will not because there are no liquor

Briefly...

Tour planned

Area residents will get the chance to go to college - at least for a day.

The Eastern Illinois Multi Purpose Center and AARP are planning a guided tour of the University of Illinois campus.

The trip is scheduled Aug. 3. Highlights will include tours of the Assembly Hall, stadium and intramural physical education building in the morning

Afternoon tours will include a 1 p.m. tour of Krannert Center for the Performing Arts and a 2:15 tour of WILL radio station.

Cost of the trip is $10. Lunch, a buffet in the second floor ballroom of the student union, is an additional $6.

The trip is open to the public.

For reservations, call the EIMPC at 283-9351.

Business cards sought

An employee of a local agency is trying to help a dying boy.

The boy, Craig Shergold, is a seven-year-old suffering from a brain tumor. The child, working through the Make A Wish Foundation, hopes to collect enough business cards to be entered in the Guinness World Book of Records.

Sharie Carter-Bane, special service/mental health coordinator for the Hoopeston Migrant Head Start, is helping the foundation by collecting cards locally.

Anyone wishing to donate business cards may send them to her care of Hoopeston Migrant Head Start, P.O. Box 136, Wellington, IL., 60973.
