Marching Cornjerkers in Viking Invitational

The Hoopeston Area Cornjerkers will travel to Danville Saturday to participate in the 21st annual Viking Invitational Marching Band Contest.

The competition is hosted by the Danville "Band of Vikings."

Hoopeston Area, rated in Class AA, will compete against Newton and Champaign Centennial high schools.

Other participating schools include Watseka, Westville and Georgetown-Ridge Farm in class B and Bradley Bourbonnais, Paxton-Buckley Loda and Monticello. Class A.

Clinton and Danville high schools will present exhibition performances.

The event begins at 10 a.m. with a parade starting at the corner of Williams and Vermilion. The parade route heads south on Vermilion to North Street, then east to Jackson and north to Danville High School, 715 N. Jackson.

Field competition will begin at 1 p.m. at Danville High School, followed by an awards ceremony at 4:15 p.m.

Admission to the field show is $3 for adults, $2 for students and $10 for a family pass.

State's largest aerospace museum to hold ceremony

RANTOUL—Officials at Illinois' largest aerospace museum have scheduled an official grand opening.

The Chanute Aerospace Museum Foundation set Oct. 8 as the official opening of museum.

Festivities are scheduled to begin at 11 a.m. with a ribbon cutting ceremony, followed by a fund raising barbecue picnic.

Admission to the museum is $5 for adults and $2 for children. The price includes admission to the museum's exhibits and library and a barbecue lunch.

The museum encompasses more than 126,000 square feet of display space, and features four underground ICBM missile silos, 16 vintage Air Force aircraft and 10 aircraft in the hangar area.

The museum is located at 2 Aviation Center in Rantoul.
