HAJH show choir performs

The Hoopeston Area Junior High School show Choir "Cornjerker Connection" received a special invitation to perform at the Illinois elementary School Association State Music Fall Workshop on Friday, Oct. 14.

Approximately 50 elementary music educators gathered at Jumers Lodge in Urbana to watch Hoopeston Area students perform their zoo-themed show.

Director Marty Lindvahl then gave a presentation on starting a show choir program, including gearing ideas and music towards junior high students and basic ideas for themes, costumes and props.

For this performance, Mary Greene accompanied on the piano, Corey Luke played drums, with Becky Quimby on the synthesizer and Joe Wolfe on bass.
