Three candidates seek same number of seats in April 4 Rossville municipal election

Three candidates have filed for the same number of openings on the Rossville village board.

Incumbents Richard Kiser and Charles Cornell will seek re-election, while newcomer Jon Witvoet will run to fill the third seat, said village clerk Kathy Roark.

Trustee Richard Birkey opted not to seek re-election for personal reasons, she said.

Candidates filed petitions which were due Monday.

The Rossville municipal election is an at-large contest, meaning candidates do not run in specified wards.
