Woman faces charges in reported stabbing incident

A Hoopeston woman is facing a disorderly conduct charge for allegedly filing a false police report last week.

Jackie Trautvetter, no age given, of 615 S. First Ave., told police last Tuesday that she had been stabbed. However, police said an investigation determined that while injured, Trautvetter had not been attacked.

Trautvetter was treated at Iroquois Memorial Hospital in Watseka.

Show choirs take second in Watseka invitational choir contest

Hoopeston Area schools returned from last weekend's Watseka Show Choir Invitational with second place finishes.

In competition Friday night, the junior high group finished second. The Cornjerker Connection was also named best-choreographed group.

In high school competition Saturday, New Direction also took second place, finishing behind Washington High School from Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Individual awards from the competition went to Kellie Frederick, best performer, high school; John Shaffer, best performer, junior high; and Jessica Martin, best female vocalist, junior high.

The group is directed by Marty Lindvahl and choreographed by Michael Weaver of Chicago.

The show choirs and jazz bands will perform at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the junior high gym.

Appliance pickup rates change

Effective April 1, Vermilion Waste Systems will change its rate schedule for picking up appliances.

Freon-containing appliances, such as refrigerators, freezers, air conditioners and water cooling charges will have a $10 pick up charge.

Other appliances, including those with electric motors, such as fans, will have a $5 charge.

Appliance pick ups must be scheduled and paid for in advance.

Those with questions should contact Vermilion Waste Systems at 283-6242.

Gas company changes owners

Local pilots will be changing jets.

As in pilot lights and gas jets.

Jeff Stipp and John Allhands, officers of Jetgas of Hoopeston, announced recently that the company purchased Empire Gas of Hoopeston.

The acquisition has more than doubled Jetgas' volume.

Jetgas discontinued appliance sales handled by Empire Gas and closed the Route 1 office, moving all business to the Thompson Ave. location.

Jetgas furnishes propane and tanks for home, commercial and grain drying heat, as well as grills and campers.

It is also a retail outlet for Vanguard vent free space and room heaters and fireplace inserts and Weber grills.

Police News

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the 500 block of East Orange.

Kristie Gonzalez of 856 E. Honeywell, driving a 1994 Mercury, was following a 1984 Oldsmobile driven by Valery E. McCormick, 826 E. Washington. Both cars were westbound on Route 9 when Gonzalez struck the rear of McCormick's vehicle.

Vernon Fink III, 21, of 623 E. Thompson, was ticketed for leaving the scene of an accident, operation of an uninsured motor vehicle and no valid driver's license following an accident Friday at Sixth St. and East Honeywell.

According to reports, police were notified at 6:12 a.m. Friday that a utility pole was broken at Sixth and East Honeywell. Police allege Fink broke the pole, then left the scene.

Police are investigating two reports of criminal damage to auto reported Friday.

Lynn Barker, 819 W. Penn, reported that sometime after 10 p.m. Thursday, someone cut the two front and right rear tires on her 1980 Pontiac.

Frank Lindsey, 523 W. Maple, reported that the front tires of his 1987 Chevrolet were also cut.

Jason A. Kinnaird, 18, of 219 E. Penn, turned himself in to police at 12:30 p.m. Friday. Kinnaird, wanted on a warrant, was released on $110 cash bond.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 3:40 p.m. Friday at South Fifth St. and East Chestnut.

A 1983 Dodge, driven by Scott D. Borders, 403 W. Lincoln, struck a 1989 Chevrolet driven by Tamara R. Rayls, 833 W. Penn.

Borders' vehicle was towed to Knuth's Body Shop.

Santiago Castaneda, 38, of 222 E. Lincoln, was arrested at 4:05 p.m. Friday, charged with illegal transportation of alcohol. Castaneda was stopped at South Second Ave. and West Main.

Guadalupe J. Cordova, Jr., 31, was arrested at 7:46 p.m. Friday, charged with trespassing and disorderly conduct after an incident at 102 N. Market. Cordova was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Bruce A. Inman, 32, of 618 S. Third St., was arrested at 3:01 a.m. Saturday, charged with unlawful restraint, home invasion, stalking and violation of an order of protection.

Inman was arrested after officers were called to Carla Rutledge's Parkview Court home to check her welfare.

Inman was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Frank Crawford III, 20, of 623 E. Thompson, was ticketed at 8:53 p.m. Saturday for leaving the scene of a property damage accident.

According to reports, Jessica J. Merrill, 505 E. Main, told police her 1982 Oldsmobile Cutlass was struck in the rear by Crawford's 1987 Chevrolet Camaro.

Crawford posted his driver's license in lieu of bond and was released.

Wayne Conrad, 511 S. Market, reported Sunday that someone broke the rear window to his laundry room. The incident occurred at 2:29 a.m.
