Attorney urges caution dealing with credit agencies

Editor's Note: This column is part of an on-going series written by attorneys Calvin Hultquist and Kate Giffin.

Your credit report

Many people mistakenly believe credit bureaus are governmental agencies. They are private businesses that provide information - for a profit - about you and your finances to other private businesses.

There are three primary bureaus: TRW, TransUnion and Equifax. They make mistakes - plenty

VMEG arrests Rossville man on cocaine charge

A rural Rossville man was arrested Tuesday on federal drug charges.

Charles T. Allison, 43, route 1, Rossville, was charged with attempt to possess cocaine with intent to distribute.

According to a press release from the Vermilion County Metropolitan Enforcement Group (VMEG), Allison was arrested after law enforcement personnel searched his home.

Drug agents seized 458 grams of cocaine, with a street value of more than $137,000. A vehicle was also seized.

The charge is punishable by up to 30 years in prison and a $2 million fine or up to life imprisonment with a prior drug conviction.

VMEG worked in conjunction with United States Postal Inspectors and was assisted by the Vermilion County Sheriff's Department and the Drug Enforcement Administration.

Because these bureaus have a large margin of error and can have a devastating impact on consumers, they are highly regulated by federal laws designed to protect you.

As an attorney, I have seen many credit reports with false information.

Also, credit bureaus make it very difficult for you to obtain a copy of your credit report, because if you don't see your reports, you won't sue them for
