Briefly

Well Baby clinic change

The Hoopeston Well Baby clinic scheduled to be held at the Presbyterian Church Thursday will instead be held at the Lutheran Church at the corner of Market and Honeywell. Participants are asked to use the south door.

The hours will remain the same. 9-11 a.m.

New employee hired

ROSSVILLE—Geoff Cornelius was hired Monday by the Rossville village board as a street and alley employee.

Cornelius replaces Lance Deck, who will become street and alley superintendent when current superintendent Santo Romeros retires next month.

No conference decision yet

Hoopeston Area school officials are still waiting to hear whether the school has been accepted into the Sangamon Valley conference.

Officials expected a decision this week, but Prairie Central has not voted, said Jim Matta.

Hoopeston Area athletic director. "They had like 10,000 other things to discuss and didn't vote on it," he said.

Prairie Central officials are expected to hold a special meeting Monday to decide the issue.

Alley to be resurfaced

The alley behind the Clark Station on Penn St. will be resurfaced following a resident complaint.

The Hoopeston city council on Tuesday approved tarring and chipping the alley because of heavy traffic in the area.

In other action, the council learned the McFerrer Park pool is expected to open Memorial Day weekend. Buildings and the pool have been painted and employees hired.

Pumpkin Family Reunion meeting set

An organizational meeting for the Pumpkin Family Reunion will be at 7 a.m. Tuesday at S.A.R.A.H.'S. Fitness Center. Anyone with ideas or who wants to help is welcome.
