Police warn residents about grass clippings in curbs

Police chief Orval Kaag is reminding residents that grass clippings should not be put in the street. An ordinance against placing clippings into the street exists in Hoopeston, Kaag said, adding that mowers should do three to four rounds with clippings going into the yard. Grass clippings are causing a problem with city drains, he said.

Kathy Mann, 841 E. Seminary, reported Friday that her license plate had been lost or stolen. The plate number is JLL968.

Danny L. Thomen, 107 Plum, Georgetown, reported Friday that someone broke the handle of his 1990 Oldsmobile while it was parked at 520 S. Fourth St.

Richard W. Schueller, no age given, of 414 S. Third St., was treated for injuries received in a car/bicycle accident at 4:45 p.m. Friday.

According to police reports, Margaret E. Cox, 617 W. Penn, was driving her 1987 Plymouth eastbound in the area of Route 9 and South Third St. At the intersection, she pulled next to Schueller on his bicycle. Schueller reportedly turned his bike into the side of Cox's car and was knocked to the ground.

Schueller was treated and released from Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital.

Michael A. Abbott, 26, 217 Front St., was arrested at 5:36 p.m. on a warrant for failure to appear. He was released on $500 cash bond.

Police are looking for an unidentified vehicle involved in a hit and run accident.

William Tincher, 709 E. Main, reported Sunday that someone struck his 1995 Pontiac while it was parked at his home.
