Excess flood money rains on Grant Food Cupboard

The Grant Township Food Cupboard is reaping some good from the 1994 flood.

The Food Cupboard has received a $1,000 check from the East Central Illinois Community Action Agency in Danville, said Grant Township supervisor Carol Flint.

The money was part of the Midwest Flood Relief block grant from the Department of Commerce and Community Affairs.

The block grant was used to help flood victims who applied for assistance. The remaining money is being given to food pantries in Vermilion and Iroquois counties which were affected by the flood.

Grant Township officials opened the program to "people who'd never used the Food Cupboard," Flint said. "That's why we're one of the food cupboards singled out to receive money."

The unexpected windfall will "go to good use,"

Briefly

No haunted house

Lack of interest has killed a haunted house in Hoopeston this year.

The Hoopeston Jaycees will not sponsor a haunted house this year because not enough civic organizations or businesses were interested in manning rooms at the house, said Jaycee president Don Kaeb.

The Jaycees had volunteered to construct rooms for a house if enough organizations would decorate and staff the rooms for Halloween.

Antique Collectible

Oh my friend, we are Antique Collectible.

As you said, my friend, you were an Antique Collectible and I am only an Antique.

Oh how I wondered what you meant by such a comment?

Now that you have left the face of earth, only now do I understand that I'm only an Antique and you were an Antique Collectible.

One day down that long road I, too, shall become an Antique Collectible and then, my dear friend, I shall join you with our loving God in heaven... And we shall become guardian angels over the loved ones we left behind.

Money continued from other side

Flint said, adding that although the money is "wonderful..." it will "just meet the daily needs of the Food Cupboard."

Cuts in the federal commodities program means the Food Cupboard depends even more on donations from local businesses, organizations and residents, especially during this time of the year. "It's the time of year when things get kind of low anyway," Flint said.

A Hoopeston Jaycees-sponsored walk for the Food Cupboard is expected to be held later this month. Money raised from the walk will help, as will donations of canned foods.

The cupboard needs "anything and everything but green beans and corn," Flint said.

Donations may be taken to the Food Cupboard, 525 S. Market.

Police News

Both drivers involved in a two-car accident were treated and released from Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital Monday.

Cory L. Fletcher, 213 Dale, and Pamela L. Rife, both of Rossville, were injured in the accident, at 3:35 p.m. at Routes 1 and 9.

Rife, in a 1988 Dodge, rear-ended Fletcher as he slowed to make a left turn from Route 1 onto Route 9. Rife was ticketed for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident. She posted her license in lieu of bond.
