Man's dream comes true in newly-opened floral shop

MILFORD—Dreams can come true. Just as a Milford man.

Tracy Herron always dreamed of having his own floral shop. Now that dream has come true with the opening of A Touch of Class.

Herron and Jeannie Stebbins own the new business, at 126 E. Jones. Herron will design arrangements while Stebbins will be the sales manager.

The pair has spent several months preparing for the opening, redoing the former Milford Finance building. The structure was gutted and rebuilt and antique tin ceilings brought back to their former glory.

A Touch of Class offers silk and live arrangements, gift baskets, funeral arrangements, collectibles - including bunnies, cherubs and teddy bears - and balloons. Christmas items are also available now.

The shop is open 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Tuesday-Friday and 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday.

A grand opening is being planned for November.

A Touch of Class can be reached at (815) 889-5202.
