Local businessmen dump suits for costumes as dance deejays

By day, Rod Burkett and Russ Leigh are mild-mannered executives, but on the night of Oct. 28, they'll turn into wildmen of sound.

Burkett, administrator at Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital, and Leigh, owner of Russell Leigh & Associates accounting firm will be the celebrity deejays for Saturday night's Pumpkin Family Reunion Dance at the Hoopeston VFW.

"Sarah (Miller) kinda asked us...shortly after WHPO's Disc Jockey Day show," Burkett said.

Miller, coordinator of this year's Reunion, said she heard Burkett and Leigh on the air. "They sounded like they were having fun," she said. "I thought they'd be good."

The men do have a good time on radio, Burkett said. "We just try to have fun with it," he said. "We try to make it mean as much to local people as possible and not take ourselves too seriously."

The pair will use professional equipment from "Music in Motion" of Champaign, owned by radio stations WLRW and WIXY. "It's not like we're bringing a boom box and taking calls," Burkett said.

Burkett is unsure what the duo will do besides play music. "Sometimes we do some of our best stuff winging it," he said. "Russ said we should get our costumes coordinated, so I guess I'll get one of those. My plan is not so much 'we're going to be the show,' but rather we'll act as a catalyst for people who are there in costume. Hopefully, a lot of people will come in costume. That's what makes it fun."

While neither Burkett nor Leigh has much experience spinning platters, they're getting help from someone who does - Burkett's wife, Becky, a professional radio deejay.

It was Becky who arranged for the equipment, and she will also be helping at the dance. "Somehow, I think her name got sorta lost in the shuffle," Burkett said.

While Burkett is looking forward to the new experience, he's not planning a career change. "I don't think it pays as well, so I better keep my day job," he said.

Library friends seek donations, helpers for book sale

The Friends of the Library will have a book sale at the Christian Church Fellowship Hall, just south of the library on Fourth St.

The sale is planned in conjunction with the Pumpkin Family Reunion.

A preview sale for Friends of the Library will be held from 7-8 p.m. Friday. Friends members will be on hand to sign up new members who wish to attend the preview sale.

The sale will be 9 a.m.-2 p.m. Saturday. Church women will sell food to nibble on while browsing.

Books, videos, CDs, audio cassettes and recent magazines may be donated to the sale by taking them to the library meeting room by Thursday.

Anyone interested in helping with the sale should call 283-6711. Help is needed transporting books to the church.

A limited-edition, pewter commemorative Christmas ornament of the library will also be available during the book sale.
