Council approves new sign welcoming visitors to Hoopeston

Hoopeston officials hope a new sign on Route 1 and Main St. will help draw traffic to the downtown area.

The Hoopeston city council Tuesday night approved purchasing a V-shaped sign to be placed at the intersection. The sign will say "City of Hoopeston, Founded 1871, People Who Care About You."

Approximately $5,000 was allotted for the sign, said alderperson Susan Comstock, civic improvement committee member.

Pillsbury donated $1,000 towards the price before closing earlier this year, said committee chairman David Borders.

In other action, the council approved spending $13,721 for an unmarked police car. The 1996 Crown Victoria will be purchased from Terry's Ford, Lincoln, Mercury in Peotone.

At the Nov. 7 meeting, the council approved purchasing two marked police cars from Terry's. Those cars cost $13,921 each.

The new car will replace a 1992 Chevrolet for which the city will receive a $4,500 trade-in.

In unrelated action, the council:

☐ approved allocating $1.8 million of city funds if a $500,000 state grant is received to upgrade the sewer treatment plant. Mayor Bob Ault said money has been set aside for several years.

Improvements are expected to cost $2.3 million.

☐ approved a $14,720 bid from Silver Brothers Construction for a storage shed at Floral Hill Cemetery.

☐ approved updating the city code book with new ordinances.

Alderman Harold Cox was the sole dissenting vote. Cox was unhappy with ordinances concerning cats and rules limiting the size of buildings in the city.

Briefly

Auxiliary officers named

ROSSVILLE—Two new members were appointed to the Rossville auxiliary police.

Jason Anderson and Brad Leaver were approved as auxiliary officers at Monday's village board meeting.

The appointments bring the total number of auxiliary police to 15.

Extra shopping

Those who plan to do some Christmas shopping tomorrow, or anytime this holiday season, can make a local child's Christmas so much better by participating in the Miracle Tree or Toys for Tots programs.

Children's names and gift information will be on Miracle Trees at Weber Drugs and Pamida. New or good used toys for the Toys for Tots program can be dropped off at Travel Discoveries, McDonald's, Jerry's IGA, LCR Mechanical or Grant Township offices.

Grocery winners

Todd Henk and Carol Oyler, both of Hoopeston, were winners in Sunday's Alpha Chi drawing for $50 grocery certificates. The certificates may be used at either Jerry's IGA or Price Less. Money raised will be used for community projects.
