East Lynn man charged with threatening Casey's employees

Franklin Roy Brookwalter, 31 of East Lynn, was arrested at 4 p.m. Saturday, charged with unlawful restraint, unlawful use of a weapon, aggravated assault/criminal damage to property under $300.

Brookwalter was arrested after he allegedly threatened employees at Casey's General Store, 225 E. Orange.

Police allege that Brookwalter threw pizza sauce and toppings around the store and had earlier threated employees with a pizza knife, assaulted one of them with his fists, refused to let them leave the building and chased them around the store.

The incidents occurred Friday and Saturday.

Brookwalter surrendered himself and was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Trent Lockhart, 413 E. Maple, reported Friday that a purple and black Aucopoco Giant 18-speed mountain bicycle was taken. The bicycle was later found and returned.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 12:19 p.m. Friday at Hoopeston Plaza.

Harry L. Johnson, 716 W. Elm, told police his 1984 Ford station wagon died and rolled into a parked 1992 Chrysler owned by Judy Stacy, 708 W. Main. Stacy's car then ran into a parked 1993 Pontiac owned by Jeff Thrasher, 801 E. Chestnut.

Dustin Leslie, 924 W. Washinton, reported Friday that someone took his 24 inch Iron Horse racing bicycle from Jerry's IGA.

Maricela R. Lopez, 802 W. Penn, reported Saturday that someone took her 1989 red Mercury Grand from her garage.

The car was later found in the alley of the 700 block of North Market.

A 16-year-old boy, who was in the vehicle, was charged with taking the car. The boy was also charged with unlawful use of a weapon after police allegedly found a loaded .22 revolver and open knife on the floor of the vehicle.

The boy was released to his parents. Police plan to file a juvenile petition on the youngster.

The Hoopeston Fire Department was called at 2 p.m. Saturday to a car fire at 901 E. Main.

Linda L. Warner, 622 S. Market, reported Saturday that someone took a cellular flip phone and
