Local open house to showcase top-ranked angel collection

Trends experts agree the nation is involved in a strong return to spiritual and family values. One reflection of this "heavenly wave" is the ongoing interest in angels.

Numerous books, plays, documentaries and retail stores are devoted entirely to the subject. A top television show, "Touched By an Angel," even chronicles the good deeds of two earth angels.

It's no wonder that Roman, Inc., with "the most angels this side of heaven" offers the most popular angel collection in the nation. The Seraphim Classics™ Collection of angels has been consistently ranked as the number one angel collection in the nation.

The collection will be showcased and new figures introduced at an open house hosted by Flowers & Gifts by Molly Culbert at 702 W. Main, Hoopeston. The event will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday.

In its third year, the Seraphim Classics angels are already award winners. The first musical, Francesca - "Loving Guardian," won the prestigious National Association of Limited Edition dealers as the 1995 "Musical of the Year." Both Isabel - "Gentle Spirit," and Evangeline - "Angel of Mercy," have been finalists for excellence awards. In April, Seraphina - "Heaven's Helper," was nominated in the "Figurines: Under $50" category at the International Collectible Exposition in New Jersey.

For more information on the collection or the open house, call Flowers & Gifts by Molly Culbert at (217)

Police News

Gary Lile, 625 E. McNeil, reported Wednesday that someone popped the rear sliding window out of his 1987 Chevrolet pickup truck while the truck was parked at 425 E. McNeil.

A half tank of gas was also missing.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 2:33 p.m. Wednesday in the 200 block of North Seventh St.

Donald E. Blakely, #23 Parkview Court, was backing his 1995 International truck and struck a 1992 Ford Taurus driven by Jacqueline A. Long, 712 E. Lincoln.

Books continued from other side

Keys to the Street" by Ruth Rendell; "A Time to Dream" by Ruth Glover; "The Burning Man" by Phillip Margolin, and "Final Jeopardy" by Linda Fairstein.

Also "Dark Debts" by Karen Hall; "The Last Don" by Mario Puzo; "Servant of the Bones" by Anne Rice; "Melody" by V.C. Andrews; "Out of Sight" by Elmore Leonard; and "Where the Wild Rose Blooms" by Lori Wick.
