Second in series of Christmas ornaments features former college

An ornament for sale by Friends of the Hoopeston Public Library may have special memories for some local residents.

The group is selling a pewter ornament of the former John Greer College, said head librarian Lou Graham.

The building, which became a high school and is now a grade school, "has a lot of memories for local people," Graham said.

This is the second ornament offered by Friends of the Hoopeston Public Library. Last year, the group sold ornaments depicting the library building.

"These are just as nice as last year's," Graham said. "You just have to see them to appreciate them."

The limited-edition ornaments, created by The Image Group of Toledo, Ohio, cost $12.50 each. Each is inscribed on the back with "John Greer College, Esta-

Tammy K. Richardson, 19, of 1001 E. Eastview, Rantoul, was ticketed for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident following an accident at 3:3 p.m. Tuesday.

Richardson, in a 1989 Mercury, was eastbound on West Orange behind a 1991 Hyundai driven by Teri Hultquist, 824 S. Third St.

Police said Hultquist stopped to turn left into a private drive and was struck by Richardson.

A passenger in Hultquist's vehicle was treated and released from Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital.

Jason C. Jones, 21, of 520 Front St., was arrested at 9:11 p.m. Tuesday on a traffic warrant for failure to appear.

Jones was released on $293 cash bond.

Jose A. Marinelarena, 42, of 2845 W. 71st, Chicago, was ticketed Tuesday for no valid driver's license.

Police stopped Marinelarena at 7:55 p.m. at West Elm and Sixth Ave.

He was released on a notice to appear.
