Hoopeston man found dead in car accident near Milford

MILFORD—A Hoopeston man was found dead in his car Saturday morning near Milford.

Rodney Allen Thiem, 33, was found by Iroquois County Sheriff's deputies after 9 a.m.

According to reports, police believe Thiem was westbound on 1180 North Road northeast of Milford when Mr. Thiem failed to negotiate a curve, left the road and hit a drainage ditch embankment.

Mr. Thiem was alone in his vehicle.

According to reports, a passing motorist noticed Mr. Thiem's vehicle and notified police.

Mr. Thiem's obituary is on the next page.

Charges filed against couple

The mother of a rural Rossville child killed when a van backed over him and the mother's boyfriend, are now facing criminal charges.

Obstruction of justice charges were filed Thursday against Connie Lynn Donnelly, no age available, of rural Hoopeston and Gary W. Halstead, 25, of Kingman, Ind.

Police said the pair lied about who was driving the van that backed of 17-month-old Jakob Donnelly on Sept. 16 at 20740 East 3750 North road.

Donnelly originally told police she was driving the van when it struck her son, but later recanted
