Children's Christmas party planned

The Hoopeston Multi Agency, in conjunction with the Hoopeston Jaycees, will host a children's Christmas party from 1-4 p.m. Dec. 21 at the Multi Agency, 206 S. First Ave.

Parents are welcome to attend the party, which is open to all Hoopeston area children.

No gifts will be exchanged, but food will be available and a deejay will provide fun for the party. Admission is free.

For more information, call (217) 283-5544.

Miracle tree sign-up

Grant Township officials have begun screening for Christmas baskets and the Miracle Tree and Food Cupboard.

Screening hours are 9-11 a.m. and 1-3 p.m. at the township office, 525 S. Market.

Applicants must have Social Security cards for everyone in the family, along with proof of income and address.

Applicants for the Food Cupboard must also have verification that they have applied for or are receiving food stamps.

New decorations adorn city

New Christmas decorations are adorning the downtown Hoopeston area.

The decorations include Christmas wreaths, each with three lighted candles and lights woven in the greenery, and red holiday banners. The Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce and city purchased the decorations, said Judi Benjamin, Chamber office manager.

Total cost for the decorations was more than $7,000, Benjamin said, adding the items were purchased from Timple Display in Oswego.

Benjamin said lights in some wreaths have already burned out, but will be replaced by the company.

Decorations which had adorned the downtown for several years are expected to be put up at Hoopeston Plaza at Routes 1 and 9, she said.

Luminaria materials available

Supplies to light up Hoopeston and the Grant Township Food Cupboard will be available Saturday at McDonald's.

Candles and paper bags for luminaria will be sold at the restaurant from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. Six candles and bags cost $3. All proceeds will be used to purchase food and supplies needed by the Food Cupboard.

Spare coats needed

The Hoopeston Multi Agency and Hoopeston Jaycees need good used coats for local children.

The organizations are conducting a coat drive and need 20 coats for area youngsters. Sizes needed range from 4 to 14.

Coats may be taken to the Multi Agency, 206 S. First Ave. or may be picked up by agency workers by calling (217) 283-5544.

The Multi Agency and Jaycees will clean coats that require it and will also do minor alterations.

City council to meet

The Hoopeston city council will meet at 7 p.m. tonight at the Hoopeston municipal building.

Rossville Legion Auxiliary party set

The Rossville Legion Auxiliary will have its annual Christmas party at 6 p.m. Dec. 10 at Crunch's Restaurant.

The event will include a $5 gift exchange.

To make reservations, call (217) 748-4023.

Police News

Julie M. Carl, 321 W. Elm, reported Sunday that some took her checkbook from her purse while she was shopping at Jerry's IGA, Routes 1 and 9.

No tickets or injuries were reported in a three-vehicle accident at 8:20 a.m. Monday at Sixth Ave. and Route 9.

Police said Melissa L. Failla, 823 W. Penn, in a 1989 Chevrolet van, and Darla Sue Cahill, 924 W. Penn, in a 1991 Oldsmobile, were stopped at the intersection. A 1994 Chrysler driven by Wallace J. Waite, 802 S. Third St., hit Cahill, pushing her vehicle into Failla.

Police reported a second accident, at 12:25 p.m. Monday in the IGA parking lot.

Tammy L. Uppinghouse, 723 N. Seventh St., in a 1984 Pontiac hatchback, was making a left turn into the lot and hit the side of a 1985 Chevrolet hatchback driven by Tamara S. Galloway, 408 N. Market.
