New logo reflects Community Fund past, looks to future

A Hoopeston agency that provides funds for social and recreational groups has changed its label to match its new official name.

What was commonly known as the Grant Township United Way is now officially the United Community Fund of Grant Township.

The name change was made at the June board of directors meeting and reflects the fact that the group has no ties to the national or state United Way.

A new logo, similar to the United Way designs, has been introduced.

It features an outstretched hand with a figure of a person in the palm. An arced line is topped with

The new logo for the United Community Fund of Grant Township.

"Caring for the Community."

The design was created by Susan Redden, the agency's executive secretary. "I wanted something people would be familiar with, would know right away what it was," she said.

In other agency news, campaign chairman Mike Pemberton has set Aug. 8 as the kick-off luncheon for the 1997 campaign. Board members, chairmen for various aspects of the drive and civic leaders will be invited to the event.

This year's drive will begin with the annual street drive on Aug. 16.

This year's goal is $35,000 to fund approximately

Spaghetti supper scheduled to benefit Rossville businesswoman

ROSSVILLE—A group of local residents is helping a local businesswomen meet medical expenses.

A spaghetti dinner is scheduled for 4-7 p.m. Friday to help defray the medical expenses for Naomi Freeman.

Freeman is owner of Freeman's Folly at 110 S. Chicago, Rossville.

The dinner will be held at the Rossville American Legion, located at the corner of Church and Thompson streets, said Belle Adwell, a colleague of Freeman's.

A 50/50 raffle and a bake sale were also held to raise money. A special fund, the Naomi Freeman Benefit Fund, has been established at the First National Bank of Rossville, 111 N. Chicago St.

Freeman's medical problems began in May, Adwell said. Freeman had a quadruple bypass heart surgery and was recuperating from that when she developed a staph infection, Adwell said. "She's had a pretty rough time of it," she added.

Freeman has been one of the driving forces in the village, serving with the Rossville Merchants Association and working to help the Rossville High School Booster Club.

Adwell hopes those Freeman has helped will now in turn help her.

Funds raised "won't be a drop in bucket to what her bills are," Adwell said. "We just want her to know we're thinking of her."

Friends may send cards to Naomi Freeman, St. Vincent's Hospital, 2001 W. 86th St., Indianapolis,

Loan requests denied

Two requests for loans from the city's Revolving Loan Fund were turned down by the loan committee Monday.

Alderman Bill Goodwine, committee chairman, said the requests came from two existing businesses. One request was for $50,000 and the other for $20,00, he said.

The names of the businesses are being withheld. "I just can't bring myself to publicly recommend disapproval," he said.

Meetings set

The Rossville village board will meet at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the village office to discuss the tar and chip program. Also, treasurer Gene Hughes will request an outside audit of village funds.

The Hoopeston city council will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the municipal building. Along with routine business, representatives from the Hoopeston Historical Society have asked to speak about city streets.

Directors of the United Community Fund of Grant Township will meet at noon Wednesday in Crunch's back room.

Rules of the Road

A Rules of the Road review course will be given from 1-3 p.m. Wednesday Aug. 13 at the Hoopeston municipal building. The course is free and open to the public.

For more information, call city hall at 283-5833.

Senior citizens to meet

The Rossville Area Senior Citizens will meet at noon Monday, Aug. 11 for a potluck luncheon at the Rossville Church of Christ. Blood pressures will be checked before the meal. Mike and Rachael Haste of the Rossville Church of Christ will present the program
