Local Methodist church offers contemporary worship services

The Hoopeston United Methodist Church will offer a contemporary worship service and experience beginning Sunday, Sept. 7 at 8:30 a.m.

This alternative worship will be fast-paced and contain a wide variety of worship experiences from drama to dialog. The first service will be a mini drama, a modern portrayal of the parable of the Good Samaritan. The drama is a humorous way of conveying the powerful message of the original parable.

Other worship experiences will include singspiration times, special music, sermonettes and dialog with the pastor. The dialog will deal with the questions of faith and what the Bible has to say about issues individuals face.

These services will be nondenominational in content and will be content-packed. All will be 30

Community fund board OKs plaque honoring contributors

People donating $200 or more to this year's United Community Fund of Grant Township will be honored for their contribution.

At Wednesday's board meeting, directors unanimously approved purchasing a plaque on which to display the names of major contributors.

The plaque, to be displayed at the Multi Agency community room, will be purchased from Hoopeston Awards & More. The commemorative piece will hold the names of 50 donors. Other pieces will be added for future contributors.

Donors who do not wish to be listed may request their names be omitted from the plaque.

In other business, secretary Susan Redden said the rural drive is ready to begin, thanks to chairman Steve Unger.

The next meeting will be Thursday, Oct. 2 at the Hoopeston Multi Agency ham and bean dinner.
