Halloween Yard Decorating contest

The Hoopeston Jaycees are holding their annual Halloween Yard Decorating Contest.

Residents are asked to call Just the Facts at (217) 283-9348 between noon and 2 p.m. Friday, Oct. 31, with their choice for best-decorated Halloween yard.

Those nominating a yard should give the yard's address and residents' names at the address.

Three cash prizes will be awarded: $25 for first place, $15 for second and $10 for third place.

Trick or treat hours

Hoopeston and Rossville officials have set trick-or-treat hours for this year.

In Hoopeston, ghosts and goblins may go door-to-door from 5-9 p.m. In Rossville, hours are 6-8 p.m.

Trick-or-treaters are urged only to go to homes where a porch light is on, said officials in both communities.

Middle school PTO meeting

The Hoopeston Area Middle School PTO will meet at 5:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 3 in the school library.

Coats, shoes needed

The Hoopeston Multi Agency needs coats and shoes for area disadvantaged children. Items may be taken to the agency, 206 S. First Ave., between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Milk jugs still needed

The Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce has collected approximately 300 milk and water jugs for its Christmas Open House luminaria. However, more are needed.

Residents are asked to take cleaned jugs (preferably with the labels removed) to downtown businesses.

During the Nov. 22 Christmas Open House, the jugs will be used for luminaria along Main and Market.

The Chamber hopes to collect enough jugs to light the streets from the downtown area to the respective intersecting highways.

Two boys arrested for shooting cars
Two 15-year-old boys were arrested Thursday, charged with criminal damage to auto after police say the boys shot four cars with bb guns.
Two people reported damaged windows. Richie Young, 41496 Grand St., Cheneyville, told police the rear glass window of his 1991 Mercury shattered and fell into the back seat while Lester Cudney, 209 Stewart, Danville, reported a hole in the rear driver's side window of his 1994 Chevrolet Metro.
Two others reported body damage, including William L. Cannon, who found a dent in the rear quarter panel of his 1997 GMC truck and Maureen Spisok, 1408 Westville Lane, Westville, who reported a bb hole in the passenger door of her 1995 Cadillac.
All vehicles were in the vicinity of Fourth St. and East Lincoln when they were damaged.
The boys were released to their parents on notices to appear.
Richard J. Fouse Jr., 32, of 424 E. Penn, was ticketed for driving too fast for conditions following an accident at 3:23 p.m. Friday in the 100 block of West Main.
Police said Fouse, in a 1993 Toyota, was eastbound when he struck a 1994 Dodge driven by Cheryl L. Overlander, 3006 E 100 North Rd.
According to police reports, Fouse told officers he tried to stop but slid on went pavement.
Policesaidth Overlander reported back pain after the accident and was to seek medical treatment.
A car radio/cassette player was found Saturday in bushes at 824 E. Seminary. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.
Christopher Bagley of 818 E. Maple, reported Saturday that someone broke the driver's side wing glass of his 1995 Volvo White GMC semi. The person then rolled down the window and took a Cobra 29 CB.
No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 12:12 a.m. Sunday in the 300 block of North Seventh St.
Police said Chad D. Watson, 804 E. Maple, was northbound when an animal ran in front of his vehicle. When Watson swerved to miss the animal, he struck a utility pole on the west side of the street.
Ramon Martinez, 40, of 204 E. Young, was arrested at 3:33 a.m. Sunday, charged with driving under the
