Briefly

B&PW winners

Winners in the last Business & Professional Womens' drawing for the year are: Aly Jackson, Hoopeston, $25; Arthur Thompson, Hoopeston, $15; and Thomas Long, St. Joseph, $10.

Show choir contest results

The Hoopeston Area High School show choir performed Saturday at Pekin High School. Of 10 schools, they qualified for the finals and finished fifth in competition.

Courtney Lotz was awarded as one of the top five solists in the evening performance.

Schools finishing, in order, were Edgewood High School, Edgewood, Ind., Mt. Zion High School, Decatur Eisenhower, Sullivan High School, Hoopeston Area and Danville High School.

Youth baseball sign-up

Sign-up for Hoopeston youth baseball programs will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, March 7 and 17 and 1 to 4 p.m. Sunday March 8 and 15, all at the Hoopeston American Legion.

Cost is $25 per child with a $50 maximum per family.

Also, Pony League is in need of coaches. For more information, call Danny Danner at 283-6831.

Police News

Leo W. Baugh, 327 W. Penn, reported Monday that while his 1997 Mercury was parked at Jerry's IGA, Routes 1 and 9, someone scratched the rear quarter panel.

Police are investigating.

would like to thank all the Sponsors who helped make our calendar for 1998 a success. We do appreciate all their donations.

We would also like to thank the calendar committee, the parents, the teachers and the students who helped sell the calendars.

Especially, thanks to each of you who purchased a calendar.

Again, thanks to our many Sponsors. We appreciate it.
