Police News

Jerry D. Sisk, 43, of 301 E. Washington, was arrested at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, charged with domestic battery on a complaint from a 43-year-old woman.

Sisk was taken to the Public Safety Building, Danville.

A 15-year-old male turned himself in to police at 4:35 p.m. Thursday. The youth, wanted on a Vermilion County traffic warrant, was released to his mother on a $2,000 recognizance bond.

A 64-year-old Hoopeston man reported Thursday that someone drove by his home in the 800 block of East Maple and threw an empty beer bottle. The bottle struck his vehicle.

Police were called to Parkview Court at 7:48 a.m. Saturday for a report of a possible deceased person. The Vermilion County Coroner's office was also called.

Police are investigating several reports of criminal damage to property, including autos, reported over the weekend, including:

- the 600 block of East Thompson, where a man reported scratches to his vehicle while it was parked in a driveway.

- the 200 block of North Third St., where a storm window was damaged.

- Hoopeston Area High School, 615 E. Orange, where several windows were broken.

- the 400 block of South Second Ave., where a windshield was broken from a vehicle.

Two cases of auto burglary are also under investigation.

Several items were taken from a vehicle in the 400 block of West Maple and an amplifier was taken from a vehicle in the 600 block of East McCracken.

Danville Area Community College lists programs, seminars

DANVILLE—Danville Area Community College has several opportunities for students of all ages in the near future.

Registration begins May 10 for the school's College for Kids program. Classes begin June 14 and July 12, and are for students who have successfully completed third, fourth, fifth, sixth or seventh grade.

For more information or to receive a free brochure, call (217) 443-8778. To register, call (217) 443-8800.

Older students may earn a bachelor's degree from Eastern Illinois University at Danville Area Community College.

By attending part time night and weekend classes, students may receive their degrees without going to Charleston. The programs are specifically designed for working adults.

Representatives from the Board of Trustees (BA degree), Career Occupations (BS degree) and Elementary Education/General Option (BS degree) departments at Eastern will be at DACC at 6 p.m. May 12 and June 14.

The representatives will be in the Clock Tower Center, Vermilion Room, to meet with potential students and provide information on the degree programs. The DACC adult recruiter will be there as well.

Refreshments will be served and reservations are not necessary.

For more information, call (217) 443-8598.
