Forever Young basketball tournament to have fifth outing

ROSSVILLE—The young—and the young at heart, will square off Saturday at Sunday in the fifth annual Forever Young basketball tournament at the Rossville-Alvin High School gym.

The eight-team, double elimination tournament is open to Rossville-Alvin High School alumni, those who live in the district and have a child who attended a district school or to those who live in the district and are married to an alumnus. The tournament features players from the 1960s to the present.

Games will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday and run through 9:30 p.m. Saturday night. Sunday's games will begin at noon with the consolation championship and will end with the championship game starting at 3:30 p.m.

Free throw and 3-point contest will begin with a preliminaries at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and 11:30 a.m. Sunday, ending with the finals for each night before the final game at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Trophies will be given for both contests, including awards for junior division. The contests are open to everyone, not just players.

A Half Time Half Court drawing will also be held with the grand prize a Direct TV satellite dish.

The junior class will serve pancakes and sausage from 6:30-9 a.m. Saturday.

Congratulations
