Spanish-style music to be presented at Methodist church

An outstanding opportunity awaits Hoopeston residents Sunday.

The First Methodist Church, 403 E. Main, will host approximately 17 Hispanic youth from Cobden and Momence to present music during the worship hour.

The young people are from Jesus Es El Senior (Jesus is Lord) United Methodist Church of Cobden and Wesley Sunrise Ministry of Momence.

They will present an exciting Spanish style of gospel music, including such moving songs as "Scaudea" and "Sendas." The youth will be accompanied by Lilia Garcia, wife of the Rev. Adrian Garcia, who is pastor of Jesus Es El Senior and Pastor Hiram Gonzalez from Wesley Sunrise Ministry.

The public is invited to this inspirational service with a very Hispanic flavor.

Hoopeston Multi Agency to hold annual auction Saturday

Need a new kitchen table?

How about some farm toys for that special child this Christmas?

Those items and many others will be available Saturday at the annual auction to benefit the Hoopeston Multi Agency.

Ten wagons of items have been donated for the auction, said executive director Chalmers Flint. Some items donated include lamps, pictures, iron patio table and chairs, beds, microwaves, appliances, recliners, old trunks, meal certificates from area restaurants and gift certificates from hardware and other businesses.

Also, new battery chargers, new and used toys, furniture, dishes, cooking utensils, car wash tokens, oil changes and grease jobs, new welding carts, movie tickets, new jogging stroller, handmade items, new and old jewelry, tire rotation and balance, several tabletop fountains, sofas, a cedar chest and a 1988 Chevrolet Caprice 4-door.

The auction begins at 10:30 a.m. at the McFerren Park Civic Center. Food will be available.

Auctioneers for the event include Bill DeWitt, Jon Witvoet, Jim Klaber and Frank Rosenberger.

For more information, call the Multi Agency at (217) 283-5544.
