Police continued from other side

in Danville.
Both drivers were ticketed after an accident at 7:14 p.m. Friday in the 200 block of East Main.

Police said Michael A. Baker, 20, of 726 E. Seminary, backed his 1986 Nissan Pathfinder from a parking space and was hit by a 1987 Dodge Dakota driven by Gregory L. Wardall, 39, of 414 W. Lincoln. Baker told police his view was blocked by a van and extended cab pickup truck.

Baker was treated at Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital and was later ticketed for operating an uninsured motor vehicle.

Wardall was cited for no valid driver's license.

A 45-year-old Hoopeston man reported Saturday that someone took several items from his home in the 500 block of South Market. Items taken included a stereo system, clock and more than 200 CDs.

Huckleby's Used Furniture, 204 N. Market, was damaged Friday night or Sunday, according to police.

A double pane glass window was broken on the south side of the building, the cash register had been thrown on the floor and an unknown object used to break a window in the front of the store.

Tonya K. Irvin, 23, of 503 N. Seventh Ave., was arrested twice Saturday.

Police arrested her at 12:09 p.m. in the 500 block of North Seventh Ave on a warrant for failure to appear on arraignment. She was released on $500 cash bond and was arrested again at 3:01 p.m. in the 700 block of East Orange on an Iroquois County warrant for failure to appear on a traffic offense. She was released on $300 cash bond.

Juan A. Martinez, 19, of 618 S. Third, turned himself in to police at 6:29 p.m. Saturday. Martinez, wanted on a Vermilion County warrant for failure to appear for a status check, was released on $95 cash bond.

Julian Salinas, 17, of 806 S. Fifth St., was arrested at 11:10 p.m. Saturday at Ninth Ave. and Main, charged with illegal consumption of alcohol by a minor, no valid driver's license, no rear registration plate light and zero tolerance.

Salinas was released on notices to appear. His vehicle was towed.
