Vermilion County Health Department receives flu vaccine

DANVILLE—As the flu season moves into high gear and those hit by the flue bug head to the doctor or hospital, the Vermilion County Health Department has just received additional vaccine for those who need a flu shot.

The health department is prepared to offer an additional public flu shot clinic. "Now that we have met our obligation to those who called and put their names on a waiting list, we're prepared to offer a public clinic," said Lynn Galloway, community health services director.

The clinic will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 9 at the health department's Danville facility at 200 S. College. No appointment is necessary.

Neighborhood Watch
 The Hoopeton Neighborhood Watch will meet at 6 p.m. Monday, Jan. 8 at County Terrace. The Vermilion County Canine Unit will present the program.

Sandy McCord Grant Township Assessor

1/2/01

I know that in life and especially in the political arena, a person is only as good as their word.

Sandy McCord has given her word that she will represent each property owner and have their best interest in mind if she is trusted with the Party nomination for Grant Township Tax Assessor.

Sandy is a professional, conscientious person who deserves your vote. She will represent the office and the Republican party with dignity. I encourage you to join me in supporting her at the Republican Party Caucus on Jan. 9, 2001.
Sincerely,

Mark S. Drollinger
Precinct Committeeman
Vermilion County Board
