Hoopeston Area Healthcare Foundation names new chair

A Hoopeston woman has been named to head the Hoopeston Area Healthcare Foundation board. Jeanne Shore was named chairman of the development council, replacing Bill Nicholls who resigned Jan. 22, 2000. Nicholls, CEO of Community Bank, has agreed to serve as foundation treasurer. As chairman, Shore will oversee various committees of the foundation. She has previously served as chairman of the foundation's community relations committee. "We appreciate the commitment Jeanne is making to the foundation," said Frank Caruso, Hoopeston

Regional Health Center CEO. "We are confident the foundation will prosper under her leadership. We also wish to express our appreciation to Bill Nicholls for his leadership as chair for the past two years. His continued role as treasurer will be valuable to the growth of the foundation." Besides her work on the foundation board, Shore is president of the Catholic Social Services community advisory board, Multi Agency board treasurer, president of the Altar and Rosary Society and serves on the boards of Migrant Head Start and St. Anthony parish council, as well as serving in other church ministries.

Former resident named casino director of administration

LAS VEGAS, NEV.—Former Hoopeston resident Janet Catron has been appointed director of administration for Ameristar Casinos, a Las Vegas-based entertainment company. In this capacity, she will direct the administrative operations for the company. Catron began her gaming career with Ameristar in 1997 as an employee of The Reserve Hotel Casino. After assisting with its opening, she moved to casino marketing. In 1998, she moved to the Venetian Resort Hotel Casino. She later managed the branch offices while restructuring guidelines and procedures for their junket program. Before joining Ameristar, Catron spent seven years as an account manager for an Illinois brokerage firm, overseeing nearly 60 accounts that included such corporations as Duracell, Redmond and Crayola. When not working, Catron paints and draws and has many awards for her art. She plays nine instruments and for two years, she shared the stage with her husband while performing with their country-western band, "Laredo." Ameristar Casinos, Inc., owns and operates six properties in Nevada, Missouri, Iowa and Mississippi.
