Business opportunity makes local couple the Florida Shores

A business opportunity will make a local couple the Florida Shores.

Eric Shore, manager of the First Allied Securities office in Hoopeston, has accepted a partnership in a First Allied office in Dunedin, Fla., near Clearwater. Shore, his wife, Leslie, and children Dean and Tess, plan to move the second week in June.

No changes are expected at the Hoopeston office. "For those clients who want to contact me, it will just be another 800 number," he said.

Shore will continue as manager and will return for essential business Day-to-day operations will be left in the hands of his parents, Gary and Joyce Shore and Sharon Dixon.

There are no plans to sell the local office. "This is a productive, profitable entity," he said.

Thanks to modern technology, Leslie Shore, who currently oversees accounts receivable and billing, will continue to do so from Florida via computer, Shore said.

This is the couple's second time to live in Florida. Ten years ago, Shore worked as a broker in the Tampa area.

Clients who would like more information on the change may call First Allied Securities at (217) 283-7103.
