Health careers summer camp

Applications are available at Hoopeston Regional Health Center for area students who wish to attend Health Careers Summer Camp 2001.

The purpose of the camps is to provide students an opportunity to learn about professions in healthcare and to provide information about academic programs. A special emphasis will be placed on careers in rural health.

Eligible candidates will be selected from students entering their junior and senior year with an interest in health professions.

The first camp is June 14-17 at Timber Pointe Outdoor Centre in Bloomington. The second camp will be July 26-29 at Touch of Nature Environmental Center, Carbondale. Cost is $15.

Hoopeston Area Healthcare Foundation will sponsor up to 10 Hoopeston, Rossville or Milford students, including the camp fee plus $10 towards transportation costs.

For an application, call Kathy Pickering, marketing/public relations director at (217) 283-4243.

Business after-hours

Hoopeston Regional Health Center and Hoopeston Area Healthcare Foundation will sponsor "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea," a business after-hours, from 5-7 p.m. Wednesday at the Country Terrace courtyard.

The event is sponsored in association with the Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce.

 Police News

A Huffy Bandit chrome bicycle with blue letters was reported taken from the 600 block of East Honeywell Thursday.

Police are investigating a burglary reported at 2:16 a.m. Friday at BJ's Pump, 1023 W. Main.

Police received a call of a burglary in progress at the bar and arrived to find entry had been forced through a door. No one was found inside or outside the building.

Several items had been disturbed. An inventory is being done to determine if anything was taken.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 9:04 p.m. Friday at South Sixth Ave. and West Washington.

Police said Frances M. Torres, of 105 W. Elm, Ambia, Ind., was northbound on Sixth in a 1995 Dodge Ram when she turned left sharply and hit a 1989 Ford Ranger driven by James Wisdom Jr. of 824 W. Washington.

A Hoopeston man was injured in a one-vehicle accident at 10:13 p.m. Friday.

Robert S. Akers of Hoopeston was treated at Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital.

Police said Akers, in a 1992 Plymouth van, was westbound in the 300 block of West Thompson when he swerved to miss a small animal and ran into the ditch on the south side of the road.

No tickets were issued.

Three men were arrested at 1:05 a.m. Saturday after a disturbance at the Girl Scout House in McFerren Park.

Arrested were Rudy O. Martinez, 22, and Domingo Reyes, 25, both of 618 S. Third St., and Noe E. Vela, 18, of 290 W. Third St., Rankin. Each was charged with disorderly conduct and theft after police said they found the men in possession of merchandise taken from Jerry's IGA.

Additionally, Vela was wanted on an Iroquois County warrant for failure to appear. He was extradited to the Iroquois County jail in Watseka.

Police said Reyes took an overdose of over-the-counter cold medication. He was taken to Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital.

Both Reyes and Martinez were given notices to appear.

Police are investigating a burglary at Second Chance saloon, 102 N. Market. The incident occurred Friday or Saturday.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 12:28 p.m. Saturday at 317 S. Market.

Police said Yvonne M. Layden of Hoopeston, in a 2000 Jeep, was backing from a parking space and struck a 1983 Buick driven by Jewell L. Reed of Cheneyville.

Layden was at fault for improper backing.
