Pearl Harbor

A Japanese Zero spits smoke (above) after being "hit" by a P-40 during activities before Friday's premier of Pearl Harbor while at right, Lorraine Theatre owner Greg Boardman, among those dressed in military garb, discusses the film. Hundreds of people stood outside the theater Friday night to watch the air show and examine the Army Jeep and spotlight that were on hand for the movie's opening. Friday's premier showing drew a full house at the theater, which seats 501 patrons. Pearl Harbor will be playing in Hoopeston for six weeks.
