Police News

A silver and green mountain bike was found Thursday at North Sixth Ave. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Paul J. Podbielski Jr., 18, of Taylor, Mich., was cited for improper backing following an accident at 4:40 p.m. Thursday at East Main and Bank.

Police said Podbielski, in a 1985 Chevrolet S-10, was parked on the west side of Bank when he backed out to go north and hit a parked 1997 Oldsmobile owned by Greene Welding and Hardware of East Lynn.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 3:31 p.m. Friday in the 300 block of Penn.

Police said Matthew S. Davis of East Lynn reported he tried to stop for the traffic light but his 1985 GMC Jimmy would not stop. He hit a 2000 Chevrolet Cavalier driven by Afton Pierce of Hoopeston.

Two people were charged with possession of a controlled substance following a traffic stop at 12:58 a.m. Saturday in the 100 block of North Market.

Police said Arturo Cordova, 36, and Guadalupe Cordova Jr., 37, both of 319 N. Sixth Ave., were charged after officers found a substance suspected to be cocaine.

Arturo Cordova was also charged with obstructing justice after allegedly giving a false name to officers. He was also found to have outstanding warrants from Dallax, Tex., for possession of cocaine and credit card abuse.

Both men were taken to the Public Safety Building, Danville, to await arraignment.

Marcus L. Ross, 24, of 1030 N. Walnut, Danville, was arrested at 10:44 p.m. Saturday, charged with no valid driver's license.

Police said officers discovered Ross did not have a license after a traffic stop at Sixth Ave. and Lincoln. Ross was released on a citation.

Jorge Casillas, 31, of 317 N. Market, was arrested at 12:10 a.m. Sunday after a traffic stop at Sixth Ave. and Lincoln.

He was charged with no valid license, operating an uninsured motor vehicle and illegal transportation of alcohol.

Police said Casillas' license is suspended.

He was released on notices to appear. The car was towed from the scene.
