Hoopeston and Rossville firemen try to extinguish a blaze at the Ed and Paula Gudel home on South Second Ave.

Blaze destroys rural home

A rural Hoopeston family lost their home Monday afternoon.

A cell phone call alerted authorities of the fire at 1229 S. Second Ave., in a home owned by Ed and Paula Gudel.

No one was home when the fire broke out, shortly before noon.

Hoopeston and Rossville fire departments responded to the fire, which sent flames and thick, black smoke out of second- and third-floor windows.

The home had special memories for one onlooker. Eddie Neathery remembered the house as the family homestead. "My grandfather lived here for 50 years, raised his family here," Neathery said. "It's sad to see this," he said.

Briefly

Trick-or-treat hours

Local officials have set trick-or-treat hours.

In Rossville, children 12 and under may go door-to-door from 5:30-8 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 31.

In Hoopeston, hours are 5-8 p.m.

Police in both towns recommend adults accompany children on their rounds and visit homes where they know the occupants. Flashlights and/or reflective clothing is recommended.

Homeowners who wish to receive trick-or-treaters are asked to leave their porch lights on.

Carnival set

The Rossville-Alvin High School class of 2004 will sponsor a carnival from 6-9 p.m. Friday. Activities for children, teens and adults are planned and food will be available. Everyone is invited.
