Santa to arrive Friday, kicking off local Christmas season

Santa Claus is coming to town.

The jolly old elf will arrive in Hoopeston at 6 p.m. Friday. The Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce will host a parade to mark his visit, which will be trumpeted by the Marching Cornjerker Band.

Santa's arrival and parade are part of the annual Christmas kick-off. Other activities scheduled for Friday include:

• Search for Your Star, where children will search for their stars at several businesses, including Global Fashions, R&G

Tax Services, Kankakee Federal Savings Bank, Comp-

ton's Restaurant, Weber's Drug Store and Hallmark Shop, First Allied Securities, The Academy for the Performing Arts, The Sewing Boutique and Sheridan's Appliances and Cobbler's Corner in Rossville.

First Allied Securities will be open Friday evening and will have treats for youngsters. Search for Your Star winners will be announced at 6:15 p.m. Friday in Rotary Park. Children's stars will be on display until Dec. 31. Participants need to pick up their stars between Dec. 26 and Dec. 31.
